Ostrich Takes Historic Jerome Handicap at Liberal Odds-Drake's Liberia Only Successful Favorite—Big Crowd on Hand for Opening of Meeting.

Fully 15,000 persons attended the opening of the fall meeting of the Westchester Racing Association at Morris Park yesterday afternoon. The beautiful track was never in finer condition. It was as fast as chain lightning, and several records were threat-ened and two broken. Society, with which the Westchester course is extremely popular, turned out in force, the clubhouse lawn dotted with many notables, who made the trip from the city in coaches and auto-

It was a day for celebration on the part of the bookmakers, as five favorites were un-able to come up to the calculations of the form players. The rich Matron Stakes for two-year-olds was run as two races, in each of which the public choice was beaten. In the first part, for colts and geldings, Eclipse course, there was a stunning surprise when E. W. Jewett's Bedouin, 20 to 1, an added starter, made nearly all the running and, standing a long drive, won by a neck from L. V. Bell's Glorifier, even money favorite. Bedouin received eight pounds from Glorifler, who was messed about some by Gannon in the early stages. Dandelion, 2 to 1, who was the runner-up to the "dip," weakened in the last sixteenth and was third, a length and a half back. Agile, third in favor, was left at the post. The time, 1:09, equalled the best time for the course ever made by a two-year-old, Domino, 128 pounds, hanging same figures in 1893.

H. B. Duryea's Sandria and Rose of Dawn, coupled at 13 to 10, second choice, ran first and second, respectively, in the second part of the Matron for fillies. Sandria and Syd-ney Paget's Belle Strome, the 6 to 5 favorite, ran on equal terms for nearly half a mile, when the latter weakened. Sandria beat Rose of Dawn by a head, both fillies being eased up, while Belle Strome lasted long enough to beat Burnt Hills, 5 to 1, a head for third money. Sandria's time, 1:08%, broke the best time for the track, 1:08%, made by Firearm, a four-year-old, in 1899.

Ostrich, 8 to 1, who was the extreme outsider in the betting, won the historic Jerome Handicap, at a mile and five sixteenths over the hill, and hung up a new record for the track, 2:13, clipping one and a quarter seconds | Roseben... from the mark set by P. J. Dwyer's Sir John in 1881. Crimmins had Ostrich in front from finish and when the crisis came in the middle of the long stretch, with The Southerner, Ormonde's Right and Outcome all pressing him hotly, the Order colt stood a drive, winning by three parts of a length from The Southerner, who was backed off the boards at the last moment. Outcome, a receding favorite, was third, a neck back, while Ormonde's Right, who stopped when Lyne went to the whip, was five lengths come anywhere near expectations and was beaten by Trapper, 4 to 1, in the fifth race. for two-year-olds, six and a half furlongs, Withers course. Delphie set the pace and held a small advantage over the favorite to the end of the Withers turn, where Trapper was moved up by O'Neill from the rear guard, the Hastings colt overhauling Santa Catalina readily and then beating her in a mild drive by a length and a half. H. B. Duryea's Bulwark was third, ten lengths back. time, 1:20, was half a second slower than

John A. Drake's Liberia, backed down to to 10, was the only successful favorite. The showed her heels to the rest in the first race, at seven furlongs, Withers course, and won in a gallop by two lengths in 1:27% Rawhide, 20 to 1, who was always second finished there a length before Buckleya,

R. H. McCarter Potter's Thistle Heather was the trick in the last race, at a mile. She was hammered down from 5 to 1 to 7 to 2 and came home on the bit, never being extended after the start. She had four lengths to spare, and was timed in 1:40%. Hildebrand t Briarthorpe, a 20 to 1 shot, into the place, two lengths before Sais, 7 to 1, who from nowhere in time to beat Hatchet

TO-DAY'S MORRIS PARK CARD. Fairview Stakes and Corinthian Steeple chase Are Features.

The Fairview Selling Stakes, for three year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth over the hill, is a leading feature of the Morris Park card for to-day. Dick Bernard will probably carry the bulk of the money, with Ed Tierney, Crenade and Proceeds also in favor. Head-master, Seagull, Flying Buttress and Royelle will doubtless have support in the Corinthian Steeplechase. Platers will go in the first event, at a mile, with the Drake entry, Ishlana and South Trimble, well thought of, in addition to Sidney C. Love, Pronta and Canteen. The third race is for maiden two-year-old fillies, at five and a half furiongs straightaway, the best of the lot being Druid, My Buela, Sumatra and Myopia. Trapper may win over again in the fifth race, for two-year olds at six and a half furiongs, Withers course but Sir Brillar, Escutcheon, Fleur de Marie and Workman are formidable. Clovis, Good and Plenty, the steeplechaser; Phaser and Gansevoort may be worth looking up in the last race, for maidens at a mile. The entries

Idle Hour Stock Farm Disposed Of on Account of Owner's Suielde.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 3.-The suicide of the Macon, Ga., banker, R. H. Plant, last April caused the throwing on the market here to-day of the forty-five head of royally bred horses, which composed the Idle Hour the new Kentucky Sales Company, and buyers were present from all sections of the country, the attendance being the best seen at a trotting sale here in years. The sale was most satisfactory, forty-five head bringing a total of $24.683, an average of $548. AUTOS SPEED ON CUP COURSE. Opposition to Big Race Next Saturday Has Almost Disappeared.

HEMPSTEAD, Oct. 3.-Over 100 speedy and ponderous automobiles from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and all about Long Island passed over the automobile course to-day where on Saturday eighteen of the speediest machines possible to manufacture will compete for the W. K. Vanderbilt cup. A number of the racers were on the course all the afternoon and created much excitement in the different villages through which they passed. Near Hicksville and on the outskirts of Hempstead three of the machines were sent along the highways at top speed, going at a rate of nearly sixty miles an hour.

With but few exceptions all the Nassau county farmers who so strenuously opposed the use of the roads for the automobile race ten days ago now favor it. At the public hearing before the board of supervisors of Nassau county at Mineola to-morrow, little opposition is looked for from the People's Protective Association, which with a petition of 185 signers last week opposed the race at Hempstead, Westbury and Hicksville. The opposition to the race has almost disappeared since the farmers have seen what benefit they will receive from the event.

An unsigned petition of the People's Protective Association was presented to the Town Board of Hempstead to-day asking that body to prevent the race, but as no rames appeared on the petition it was thrown into the waste basket.

The ciliug of the course was about completed to-day. This has cost the Automobile (lub of America nearly $6,000. Along Fulton avenue, Hempstead, and in the Meadow Brook section there are many agitated housekeepers owing to the amount of oil and dust which the sterner members of the family have tracked onto the costly rugs and carpets and which has caused much damage. For a day after the oil was put on the hard macadam road the streets were literally running with oil, and tradesmen tracked the oil and dirt into every house along Fulton avenue. Hempstead With but few exceptions all the Nassau

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

DRAKE'S $25,000 COLT BRITISHER OUT OF TRAINING.

Plaudit Colt Injures His Pastern Joint in a Workout-All of the Chicagoan's Horses to Be Sold at Auction-Big Money Bet on John A. Drake's Liberia.

Britisher, the two-year-old colt by Plaudit.—British Blue Blood, who was purchased early in the season from John E. Madden for $25,000 by John A. Drake, has proved to be a poor investment for the Chicago turfman. He started on numerous occasions in the Drake colors, and always succeeded in burning up the stable's characteristic wagers, but Trainer Wishard never gave up hope of being able to make him win several races before the close of the season. The climax was reached yesterday, however, when Britisher went out for a speed trial on the Westchester track. The colt had a big stable boy up and was sent away at a smashing gait. In coming down the hill it was noticed that something was wrong with the high priced colt, and the boy was soon pulling him up. When Britisher stopped it was found that he had injured the pastern joint and was on the verge of a breakdown Trainer Wishard said that he did not believe the injuries would cause the permanent retirement of the colt, but he decided then this season.

For that matter, Britisher, if he can stand training next season, may not race in the Drake colors. Following the announcement made several weeks ago in THE SUN, the entire Drake stable will be sold at auction on the last day of the Morris Park meeting. Nothing will be held in reserve. Ort Wells will be the star of the sale, but some people bought in by his owner or friends. Drake but he insists that next year he will not have as much time to devote to the sport as in the past. As nearly everybody knows, he is a heavy loser on the season, in spite of the fact that Ort Wells has won about $75,000 for him in stakes and purses. Among the horses that will be put under the hammer. in addition to Ort Wells and Britisher, are Liberia, Ocean Tide, South Trimble, Runnels, Orly II., Rapid Water, Roseben, Ishlana, Joound and others. Liberia carried a big stable commission in the first race yesterday. She opened at 6 to 5, but was hammered down to 9 to 10, the Drake betting agents succeeding in placing between $15,000 and $20,000 at the track, part of it with the clubhouse commissioners, who are still making private books themselves. The crowd followed suit. and the filly's success was the cause of a wild demonstration. But that was as far as public form went, for during the rest of the day the bookmakers were busy stowing away the public wealth. Glorifler burned up thousands in the second event, and Belle Strome consumed an even greater amount in the third. But the Duryea entry, Sandria and Rose of Dawn, were heavily backed, particularly by the stable and by Joe Yeager. Charley Cash was one of a few big specu lators who looked upon Ostrich as a cinch in the Jerome Handicap. At the last moment, when there was plenty of 10 to 1 against Ostrich, Cash went all over the ring, betting $100 at a clip wherever he could get it down.

After the numbers had been hoisted Cash was $25,000 richer, it was said. The South-erner was the heaviest backed horse in the race. From 4 to 1, those who fancied him, including Mattie Corbett and his friends, pounded the son of The Commoner down to 3 to 1, and even 13 to 5, a moment before the field was sent away. Many of these speculators thought that the colt should have won, too, with a little more energy on the part of Willie Davis. Ormonde's Right might have been in the money if Lyne in going to the whip at the last furlong pole had not lost the reins for a moment.

It was the opinion of numerous wise mer that Santa Catalina was a false favorite at to 4 to 1, showing excellent judgment. W. H. Snyder, the trotting horse man, who owns Trapper, had a good bet down both ways. There were two notable plunges in the last race, one on Thistle Heather, who was beaten down to 7 to 2 from fives, and the other on Akela, who was lowered from threes to 13 to 5. Frank Farrell's Gay Lothario was also played again, to no purpose. On the way to the post Sandria, formerly named Cricket, ran into the fence and cut her neck near the shoulder. The victory of Sandria, as well as that of Bedouin in the Matron Stakes, was a distinct triumph for the Whitney breeding establishment. Bedouin was sold early in the year to E. W. Jewett, and was trained for yesterday's race by John Huggins. As Huggins was ill at his home in Sheepshead Bay, he was unable to see the Meddler gelding win, but Mr. Jewett, who backed Bedouin at 40 to 1, sent a telegram to Huggins right after the race, telling him the good news. Henry Forsland suggested a novel plan to the stewards yesterday for timing the races run down the Eclipse course. In order to get the fractions he wanted to have three men armed with red flags placed at different points along the course so that watches could ne worked accurately. S. S. Howland, however, could not see the plan at any angle, although it was deemed feasible by many practical horsemen.

A consignment of English bred horses arrived here yesterday to be sold by the Fasig-Tipton Company. In the lot were two stallions, ten broodmares, eight yearlings, five wearlings and two two-year-old fillies. The stable of jumpers belonging to J. S. Fay, Jr. (Mr. Story) will be sold at auction n the final day of the present meeting. The Matron Stakes, in gross worth $30,570. Of this amount Bedouin won Previous winners of this rich event were Sir Francis, 1892: Domino, 1893; Agitator, 1894 Indian Fairy, 1899; Beau Gallant, 1900; Heno, 1901: Grey Friar and Eugenia Burch, 1902; The Minute Man and Armenia, 1903.

The Jerome Handicap is one of the oldest American turf classics. It was first called The Champion and was run at mile heats from 1866 to 1870. In 1871 the distance was changed to two miles and was continued until 1878, when it was reduced to a mile and six furlongs. In 1890 the route was again altered to a mile and five sixteenths, and the race was run at Jerome Park in 1891 for the last time. The past winners of this race include many famous horses. They were: Watson, Metairic, Bayonet, Glenelg, King-fisher, Harry Bassett, Joe Daniels, Tom Bowling, Acrobat, Aristides, Charley Howard, Bazil, Duke of Magenta, Monitor, Grenada, Barrett, Carley B., George Kinney, Water Lily, Longview, The Bard, Firenzi, Prince Royal, Longstreet, Tournament, Picnicker, Tammany, Young Arion, Rubicon, Counter Tenor, Souffe, Rensselaer, Handball, King

Barleycorn, Alcedo, Blues, Hermis and Eugenia Burch. Outcome in the Jerome Handicap and was suspended by Starter Castidy for two days The send-off in the first part of the Matron Stakes was fair for all except Agile. Burns had a tight hold on the colt's head when the burrier went up and the son of Sir Dixon reared. He was the loser of a dozen lengths before he got under way.

There was a hot tip on Hatchet in the last race and he was liberally played at 5 to 1 David Gideon pulled off a killing with this colt last spring. He is now owned by William Harry Payne Whitney, Clarence H. Mackay and Perry Belmont were among the notables who saw the races from the clubiouse lawn.

The Police Department was unusually well represented, not only by numerous officials in full uniform, but by a small regiment of sleuths from the Central Office.

IN THE FOOTBALL WOR! . Light Work for Columbia—Shifts in Harvard and Princeton Elevens.

Columbia's football practice was marked by easy work yesterday. There was no scrimmage. All that Morley did was to drill his backfield men in secondary defence, which was one of the faults of the game with Wesleyan. The players were lined up with ends, tackles, guards and opposing half backs only on the scrub formation. As soon as the ball was snapped the 'varsity ends and half backs rushed in and tried to break up the scrubs' rush formation. The idea met with success, and there was a visible improvement in the work of the back field

The men were coached by Bert Wilson and William Erb, veteran quarter backs of former Columbia elevens. General jubilation was caused by the presence of John Tomlinson, Jr., the veteran Yale and Columbia guard, Tomlinson was graduated from the law school last June and at that time announced his intention of returning for post-graduate work. His accession to the squad will solve the problem so far as left guard is con-cerned. Tomlinson weighs about 220 pounds, but is expected to train off about twelve pounds. It was announced that Gerald O'Loughlin, captain and No. 7 of the 'varsity crew, would quit football in order to devote his time to the fall rowing practice. Boyle, another 'varsi'y crew man, who has been playing substitute tackle, will also go out for rowing work instead of the gridiron game, Among the new men out yesterday Harry Arnold, former captain and half back at Andover Academy. Arnold is big and fast and received a try at half back on the 'varsity, where he did well. Leighton and Acker, from the school of pharmacy, and Pryde, a freshman, were other new candidates.

CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 3.—The practice of the Harvard football squad to-day was full of features. There were shifts in the 'varsity eleven. The 'varsity did its first scoring on the second. Several men were added to the crippled list, and there were additions to the squad. Squires, who has been at right tackle and Parker, who has been substitute centre, have been moved to the two guard positions, and will be tried out there. Lookwood, who was kept out of the Williams game, has straightened out matters with the authorities and is back at left end on the 'varsity. Hurley had a day off and duild took his place, while Fraser of the second eleven played on the 'varsity in place of Cunniff. Drill was out, but did only light work on account of a bruised muscle, and Oveson, substitute right tackle, is on the side lines with a bad ankle. White, one of the big heavyweights, who has been a candidate for guard, was moved into centre and played on the second.

Jack Parkinson, last year's centre, was out in toos to-day. He will have a physical examination to-morrow and if he has recovered from the injuries he received last fall will report for work to-morrow afternoon. Jenkins, an Exeter ex-captain and full back, Joined the squad to-day. In two seven-minute halves the 'varsity scored two touchdowns on the second eleven, but it was hard work, as the second put up a stiff defensive game. Considerable attention was given to punting in the scrimmage to-day. Nichols kleking for the 'varsity, and he did some good work under Bob Kornan's coaching.

The Harvard freshman squad began its work this afternoom with Walter Sugden, former 'varsity centre, as coach. Of the 120 men on the squad, seven are over 200 pounds, seven more between 150 and 200, and twenty-nine between 160 and 180. It is the most likely lot of freshmen that Harvard has had for some years. CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 3 .-- The practice of the PRINCETON, Oct. 3.—The Tiger coaches made a shakeup in the eleven to-day. Cooney, the tackle who played against Hogan in the Yale game last fall, was shifted to centre and Dutcher was placed at tackle. The reason for this change is hard to see, as both men have been doing well at their old positions. Cooney has not been playing up to his last year's standard, but he was late rounding into form last season. Judging by the work to-day the new combination does not add any strength to the eleven. Dutcher, was altogether too slow for his place and was boxed on nearly every play. Cooney did not seem to have very much loaf in him. The practice game was uninteresting, as the 'varsity, outside of Cooney and Dutcher, was made up of substitutes. The scrub scored two touchdowns. Tooker was taken from the scrub back field and put at end on the second eleven. He was very fast in getting down the field and made some clever tackles. The practice to-morrow will be a hard one in preparation for the Wesleyan game on Wednesday.

West Point, Oct. 3.—To-day there was no some years.

WEST POINT. Oct. 3.—To-day there was no dress parade and the cadets had a little extra time for practice. There was no scrimmage, but the coaches took the men in hand and made them walk through a number of formations to remedy faults which Saturday's game made apparent. The coaches are satisfied with the showing the team made and the playing of the many new men who received a trial. Hanlon at half proved a line borer and consistent ground gainer in Saturday's game. For two seasons he played at Wesleyan. Jenkins, the big fellow whom the coaches are trying to develop for the right guard position, did not make good in the Tufts game, and Seagraves replaced him. He has the build of a good man for the position, but his play is ragged. Latta, a new man, is making both the old-men. Rockwell and billespie, exert themselves for the left end position. Davis, the big back, was put out of the game with a sprained ankle on Saturday, and will be laid up for a few days.

day, and will be laid up for a few days.

With an exceptionally strong line and the 'varsity back field, the scrub team was unable to score on the first team in a hard thirty minute half at New York University yesterday. Whenever the scruba lost the ball on downs they were allowed to keep it in order to thoroughly try out the 'varsity line. The work of the first team was rather ragged during the first few minutes, and the backs ripped the line up for from two to three yards on nearly every play. After the men were thoroughly warmed up the line, proved to be a stone wall, and the runner was often thrown for a big loss. Mowen, who plays left half on the 'varsity distinguished himself by making several long runs around the end. The line up of the 'varsity yesterday will probably be the same in the game with Amherst to-morrow. It was as follows: Left end, Lowry; left tackle, Reilley; left guard, Coe; centre, Reynolds; right guard. Raldiris; right tackle, Miller; right end, Wiley; quarter, Hulsart; left half, Rogge; right half, Van Dyck; full back, Swartz.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Oct. 3.—With the exception of the bruised shoulder of Capt. Watson, the Williams team returned from Cambridge in good shape and, with this week of hard work, expects to be in trim to give Columbia a fine tussle next Saturday. Considering the exceptionally heavy team and the fine early condition which Harvard had, the showing made was encouraging to the Williams men, as they not only made their first down three times, but also made a magnificent rally which took the ball from Harvard on the Williams 2-yard line. Wednesday the team will meet the strong Massachusetts Agricultural College, which held Dartmouth to three touchdowns.

ITHACA. Oct. 3. The Cornell football practice went slowly to-day. A number of the varsity men were absent for one cause or another. No scrimmage was held. The practice consisted of a blackboard talk by Coach Warner and then a long drill with the new formation, which had been explained by the coach. Because of the absence of some of the most important men, Coach Warner did not have the opportunity to pick a full varsity eleven, as he was expected to do to-day. Wilder, however, was shifted to centre, where his 205 pounds are greatly needed. He did well at snapping the ball back and should hold the position. At Clinton, N. Y .- Hamilton, '42; Clarkson

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—The New Yorks kalsomined the Browns this afternoon. Orth was sent in to twirl for the visitors and pitched excellent ball for five innings when he asked to be relieved after having retired the first man up in the sixth and had kept the Browns down to two hits. His arm had gone back on him. Clark Griffith went in to cinch the game and succeeded in doing so in superb style. Howell twirled for the locels and did fair work, but his team mates could not connect with the twirling of the visitors when hits would be of advantage to them. Twice the Browns got a man as far as third and there he stayed. The New Yorks failed to score until the fourth inning, when with two down, Ganzel caught a ball in the ribs and was so badly injured that he could scarcely walk to first. He quickly revived, however, when Conroy rapped a triple to right and sped around the bases like a stake horse. In the seventh, a bunt, a sacrifice and a double brought another visitor home, and in the eighth a single, a hit by pitcher and an out scored the third and last run of the game. The score:

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHALLENGE. President Gordon Proposes Series With

New York Nationals for Championship. Joseph Gordon, president of the Greater New York Baseball Club, issued yesterday the expected challenge to the local National League club, as follows: John T. Brush, Esq., President New York National

NEW YORK, Oct. 3, 1904.

John T. Brush, Esq., Prevident New York National League Club.

DEAR SIR: In behalf of the Greater New York Raseball Club of the American League. I hereby challenge the New York National League Club to play a series of seven games for the weird's championship in the event of the Wioning of the American League pennant by the Greater New Yorks. In view of a general popular demand in the interest of true sportsmanship. I believe that such assertes should be arranged forthwith. As far as the Greater New York club is concerned, gate receipts cut an insignificant agure. The New York public, which has supported the game loyally through years of viclositudes, is entitled to consideration, and the time has now arrived, in my estimation, when this support should be rewarded by the playing of a series that will be memorable in haseball history. The American League won the title of world's champions when the Bistons defeated the Pittsburgs last year. If the Greater New Yorks deteat the Bostons in the American League race we will have a right to defend the title. If you wish to prove to the baseball public that the New York Nationals are capable of winning these added laurels from the Greater New Yorks we will pave the way. The responsibility will rest upon you, Mr. Brush, to accept or decine this fair, square proposition, made in the interests of the national sport, in stipulating the number of games to be played, we would suggest that three be played at the Polo Grounds three at American League Park, and the place of the seventh game, If it becomes necessary to play it, to be decided by the toss of a coin, the winner of four games to be the champions of the world. Very truly yours.

President Greater New York B. B. Club of the A. L.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 3; ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 1. Mathewson mowed the Cardinals down yesterday like a reaper going through wheat. He made a season's record by striking out sixteen of the St. Louis men, and every patter on the visiting team fell a victim to his de ceptive drop ball. The best previous record of the season was fifteen, by Glade of the Browns against Washington, on July 15. Yesterday's game was played with renewed animation, Nichols pitching a splendid ame also. His judgment was masterly, but an error in the eighth inning was costly for him and his Cardinals. The score:

HORSES AND CARRIAGES

R. H. MACY & CO.,

Says The Herald:
"Macy's harness department is one of the few places where the genuine Burleigh horse blankets can be obtained in New York. These blankets are waterproof as well as very warm, and they are in high favor among truckmen and all who work horses in all sorts of rough weather. More than one hundred bales a year are sold at Macy's."

We handle our Harness interests broadly and can supply every requisite for the rider and driver FOR LESS EGNEY THAN ANY OTHER STORE.
